Rev. Harcourt Klinefelter & Lois Mothershed Pot will speak.
Rev. Klinefelter worked for Dr. King for 3 years. Lois Mothershed Pot was the first Black student in her university and the first Black president of the Christian Students Union. Her sister was one of the "Little Rock Nine."
Young people will focus on what the Dream means to their tomorrows.

From New York, Jazz singer and actress Adrienne West will perform as well as Liat Alkan, lyric soprano. Liat will also direct the Messengers, a student vocal group. The Honorable Kate Nanavatty, Deputy Chief of Mission - United States Embassy will share her thoughts.

Please bring ID - a driver's license, student identification, passport etc.
Because Nieuwspoord is in the same building as the Second Chamber of the Dutch Parliament, it is necessary to go thru a Security Check.
